HOW DO I KNOW WHICH LEVEL I SHOULD TAKE?

The Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) includes 6 levels:

- ▶ If you have no knowledge of French language at all, you will be automatically registered in the A1 level.
- ▶ If you have already some knowledge of French language and if you have a diploma or certification (DELFDALF or TCF) to attest your level, you will be registered in the corresponding level (for example, if you have a DELF-B1 certification, you will attend group B2)
- ▶ If you have some knowledge of the French language, but you do not know exactly what your real level is, you will make a level test upon your arrival at the USMB and you will be registered in the corresponding level.

Attention: Groups will be open, subject to a minimum number of participants.
