

INTERNATIONAL STAFF WEEK

Enhancing cooperation between European engineering faculties

Teruel Engineering Faculty (Eupt), Campus of Teruel, University of Zaragoza (Spain). October 1-3, 2025

Web site of the Faculty: <https://eupt.unizar.es/international-students-teruel-engineering-faculty-eupt>

Web site of the University: <http://www.unizar.es/>

Goal of the event: to provide a framework for enhancing international cooperation between European engineering faculties. The main topics of discussion are academic mobility of students, faculty and staff members, joint European academic projects and opportunities for cooperation between engineering faculties. Moreover, the event will provide opportunities for networking and social activities.

The Teruel Engineering Faculty (Eupt) is especially focused on informatics, computer science, electronics, robotics, automation and control engineering, electrical engineering, biomedical engineering, artificial intelligence, data science, computing, cybersecurity, etc.

Programme

Please contact with your International office or ERASMUS+ Coordinator. There is no participation fee. Lunches, coffee breaks and social events are all free for participants. The only thing that is not free is the optional social dinner on Thursday, October 2, which will cost approximately 30-40 euros per person. All participants will be awarded with Certificates of Attendance.

Special accommodation: On the Teruel Campus there is a modern residence with comfortable apartments suitable for temporary stays at low prices <http://cmps.unizar.es/informacion-estancias-ocasionales>
You can also book in a wide variety of hotels of all ranges: <https://reserving.com/hotels/europe/spain/aragon/teruel/teruel>

- Would you like to extend your stay in Teruel? Good choice. You have many things to visit. We highlight two of them:
- The mausoleum of the Lovers of Teruel, dedicated to the most breath-taking real love story that inspired Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet. <https://amantesdeteruel.es/en/>
 - Dinopolis: It is the largest dinosaur-themed park in Europe, combining science, fun, and paleontology, and featuring the Turiasaurus riodevensis — the largest dinosaur ever discovered in Europe. <https://www.dinopolis.com/>
